

Privacy Notice for The Bourne WI, Farnham

The Bourne WI has developed a privacy policy in line with GDPR requirements. When you make an enquiry about our group, through our website, we collect personal information about you in order to respond to your enquiry.

This privacy notice sets out how, why and for how long we use your personal data, as well as who it is shared with.

The data we collect from you

When you make an enquiry about the Bourne WI through our website, we ask you for the following personal information:

Contact details – name, email address and phone number

Why we need your personal information

We need to collect your contact details so that we can respond to your enquiry. We may use the information to:

- Send you information about Bourne WI activities and events;
- Send you publications produced by the NFWI and SFWI (our affiliated national and county organisations);
- Contact you to explain more about our groups activities and membership.

Who we share your personal information with

Personal data collected through our website is shared with committee members.

We will never share your information with any other organisation.

How long we keep your personal information

We keep your personal information, collected through our website for up to 3 months. After this time, it is deleted.